The Capitol Symphonic Youth Orchestras Autumn Sounds Concert

The best young musicians in the Washington, DC area bring old and new classics to life as The Capitol Symphonic Youth Orchestras (TCSYO) presents its "Autumn Sounds" concert on Sunday, November 16, 2014 at 2:00 PM in Alexandria, Virginia. Led by Artistic Music Director and Conductor Dr. Cheri Collins, students will perform a wide range of works, including Borodin's "Polovetsian Dances No. 17," Smetana's Overture from "The Bartered Bride" and O'Neill & Kinkel's "Christmas Eve/Sarajevo 12/24." "So much of the magic behind TCSYO comes from the energy and passion that Collins exudes" writes Northern Virginia magazine. The Autumn Sounds concert takes place at the Rachel M. Schlesinger Concert Hall and Arts Center on the Alexandria campus of Northern Virginia Community College, 4915 East Campus Lane. Ticket prices are $15 for adults, $10 for seniors and $5 for students. Come see why TCSYO is fast becoming a premier youth orchestra and leader in music education in the Washington, DC area!
